Red wines

Bellefontaine Merlot (France) £21 – also by the Glass

*French Merlot from the Languedoc region. Soft and pliable red capable of matching with most foods.
Easy choice for a devout red drinker.*

Terres De Roy Côtes du Rhône (France) £30 – also by the Glass

A firm favourite at the Gate. This Côtes du Rhône has an enticing nose that is ripe and concentrated, full of black and red berry fruit. It is supple, rich yet balanced with crisp acidity. It is delightful to drink now.

Nieto Malbec (Argentina) £28

*Blackberry, plum fruit and sweet spice. The palate is silky and warming with more black fruit and dark cherries. The wine is vibrant with an alluring blend of fruit along with clove, pepper and cinnamon spice.
A great full-bodied wine with a fresh finish.*

El Coto Rioja Crianza (Spain) £29

This Rioja is vibrant ruby red in colour with a garnet rim. Aromas of red fruits, vanilla and toast entice the nose. On the palate, the wine's silky texture is tempered by concentrated, red berry fruit and notes of sweet spice from the oak.

Fleurie Le Quarter du Cru Beaujolais (France) £30

A textbook Fleurie. An abundance of woody spice on the nose followed by raspberry coulis and fig notes which continue onto the fresh fruit finish. A classic French red wine.

Chianti Classico San Feuce (Italy) £35

Chianti is a famous, delicious, and tasty red wine. from Tuscany in Italy, it is a classic, and is considered a fresh, fruity, medium-bodied, dry red wine. Chianti wine is earthy, with a touch of spice, and occasionally a note of savoury due to the ageing process that occurs in oak barrels.

Sparkling

Lunetta Prosecco Spumante (Italy) £26

Any excuse for a celebration with this bottle of lovely bubbles. A deliciously light and fruity Prosecco with hints of apple and peach on the nose and a fresh, softly sparkling palate.
